UNCHANGED

Is the Philadelphia Street Car Strike.

The Union Traction Company Tied Up.

Cars are Run Under Protection of Police.

One Thousand Extra Patrolmen Called Out--Mayor Ready for Any Emergency That May Arise.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The second day of the big strike of employes of the Union Traction company opens with the situation practically unchanged as far as the running of cars is concerned. All the branches are in effect tied up, although cars with formidable escorts of police have made the circuit of nearly every one of them without molestation. While this enables the officials to declare that the lines are open, it does not help the situation much as far as the convenience of the riding public is concerned.

There have perhaps been more cars on Chestnut street than any other thoroughfare in the city. At irregular intervals this morning the immense concourse of pedestrians which the strike has forced onto that always crowded street have been treated to the extraordinary spectacle of a trolley car moving slowly down the street, preceded and followed by four mounted policemen, and carrying on the front and rear platforms an aggregate of five policemen. Each officer is armed with a heavy oak night stick. The chances are that in addition to this array the motorman or conductor is a deputy marshal, wearing pinned under the coat the silver star which denotes authority, as many deputies are said to running cars.

Up to the hour of writing this dispatch, not more than a dozen cars have made their way down Chestnut street, and all of them were escorted in the manner described above. There are very few passengers, as the cars proceed so slowly that walking is preferable. Fortunately the weather is beautiful.

Mayor Warwick and Director of Public Safety Beitler, who spent the night in their offices in the city hall, ready for any emergency which might arise, reported this morning with an evident air of relief that reports from all sections of the city are to the effect that everything is quiet today. This condition is without doubt due in a large measure to the determined stand taken by the mayor last night, when he served notice that it was no longer a fight between the traction company and the strikers, but a battle between the city and mob violence, and that the city would win. To this end nearly a thousand extra police were sworn in, the men being picked from the applicants for appointment who had passed the necessary physical examination. These, with the regulars, constituted an army of over 2,500 men and everyone of them is on duty today. The big car sheds and power houses in various parts of the city were vigilantly guarded all night, but there was apparently no necessity for the presence of the police as no attempt at violence was made. The striker's headquarters, at Eighteith and Callowhill streets, some distance from the various depots of the branches of the Union Traction company, was deserted soon after midnight, and none of the leaders made their appearance up to noon today. In the neighborhood of the big car sheds are rows of small dwellings occupied mainly by the employes of the company, and in these localities is naturally much excitement. The streets are filled at all times with the families of the strikers and their sympathizers, who discuss the situation and abuse the men at work.

On Market street, the authorities have stationed two mounted policemen at each corner in addition to the two or more on foot. Duequine street, the street which was the scene of most of yesterday's rioting, is the most carefully guarded today, but the disorderly element seems to be either cowed or indifferent, for there has so far been no sign of disturbance on these streets or in any other locality. Every other man wears a card bearing the words, 'I will walk," stuck in his hat band or pinned to his coat, and many women are wearing them, too.

The officials of the company declare they have plenty of men to run the cars if they can get protection for them On the other hand the strikers declare that enough skilled men to take their places cannot be obtained. The strike has proven a windfall of considerable magnitude to the single independent line in the city which resisted the pressure when the big consolidation of all the other lines was recently effected. The company runs its cars to West Philadelphia on Arch and Vine streets, and in its endeavor to accommodate all the people who wish to patronize it, have pressed into service every summer car and even resurrected some which had been permanently sent to the hospital. Every car run is packed to the roof and the officials contemplate the situation with a large degree of satisfaction. The Broad street omnibus line, controlled by the troubled Union Traction company, ran its busses yesterday, but today, for some reason, there are only a few on the streets. The suburban cars of the Pennsylvania and the Reading Railroad companies were again crowded to their utmost capacity today.

FIVE MEN KILLED

By an Explosion on the Steamer, St. Paul.

The Accident Believed to Have Been Due to a Flaw in the Steam Pipes.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Five men were killed and six injured this morning by the explosion of a steam pipe on the American line steamer St. Paul, while the vessel lay at her dock at the foot of Fulton street, North River. The dead are:

James Fawns, assistant engineer, of England.

Manning, fourth assistant engineer.

Robert Campbell, machinist, New York.

George Williams, machinist, Hoboken, N. J.

Daniel McCullion, machinist's helper, Brooklyn.

The injured are: Frank Vespers, third assistant engineer, Roxbury, Mass; Andrew Heard, storekeeper, Scotland; Dunham, machinist, England; A. Fogel, cleaner, Scotland; Edward Wischert, engineer. All these were seriously scalded and taken to the Hudson street hospital.

At the time of the accident, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, there were thirty men of the crew in the fire room and eight in the engine room. The main steam pipe, which is three feet in diameter, runs from the engine to the fire room. It was this pipe which exploded. The main stop valve was blown out. The accident is believed to have been due to a flaw in the pipe.

Preparations were being made for the sailing of the vessel at 11 o'clock, but fortunately none of the passengers were aboard of the vessel. The explosion was of terrific force and shook the big vessel from stem to stern. Following the report was the sound of escaping steam. It poured up to the deck from the engine room in clouds and completely enveloped the vicinity. From above the noise of the escaping steam could be heard the cries of the men who had been at work in the engine room, injured by the explosion.

The nature of the explosion was such that it rendered access to the locality extremely difficult. As quickly as possible the steam was turned off. Almost simultaneously four half dead men scrambled up the iron stairway leading from the engine room and fell prostrate upon the port side of the vessel. They were hurried into the cabin and restoratives administered to them. Two other men terribly scalded were found in an almost unconscious condition lying near the bottom of the stairway and were lifted up to the deck.

As soon as the steam had cleared away sufficiently to render seeing the surroundings five men were found lying in various parts of the compartment dead. They had all been scalded to death, and their faces and those parts of the body which were not covered by their clothing looked as if they had been parboiled. The bodies were covered over where they were found lying with pieces of tarpaulin, and word was sent to the coroner's office.

The probable result of the injuries received by Wilson, Vesper, Folker and Heard cannot be foretold by the surgeons. It is likely, however, that some of the men cannot survive.

Engineer Clark said that he was sure that the vessel could not sail within a week, for it would require at least that time to make the necessary repairs. The steamer has made three round trips.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE.

The Comment Concerning It in London.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—In spite of the prominence which all the newspapers give to President Cleveland's message to congress on the Venezuelan boundary question, the general public here refuses to get excited or even interested in the matter. At the hotels, clubs, railroad stations, etc, the matter is rarely alluded to. Those who have read the correspondence resent President Cleveland's attitude, but the almost invariable answer received to the reporter's inquiries for an expression of opinion is: "What is it all about, any way?" The message, however, is being used on the stock exchange to hammer American securities. Consols also decline, but there was no excitement.

One newspaper remarked: "The Yankee jobbers are the only persons injured by the message and they have just ground for complaint."

The editorial comments of the New York World and the New York Evening Post on the situation are reprinted here with approval, as indicating American opinion on the situation. The radical evening newspapers take the most serious view of the situation. The Star, in a double column, asks: "Is it war?"

Editorially, the Star remarks: "It is difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the situation. The United States may be assured that Englishmen, regardless of party, will abide firmly by Lord Salisbury's claims and will not submit to bounce."

"Public opinion,' says the Westminster Gazette, 'will unanimously support Lord Salisbury, but it is a pity he enlarged the dispute and attacked the Monroe doctrine."

WARLIKE!

Is the Attitude of Uncle Sam.

The Venezuelan Affair Creates Excitement.

The House Comes Boldly Forward With a Bill,

Authorizing the President to Appoint a Venezuelan Commission and Appropriates $100,000 for Expenses.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Mr. Hitt, republican, of Illinois, rose in the house this morning as soon as it had been called to order and asked for unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill to empower the president to appoint a commission to consider the Venezuelan boundary question and to appropriate $100 000 for the expenses thereof. The text of the bill is as follows:

"A bill making an appropriation for the expenses of a commission to investigate and report upon the true divisional line between the republic of Venezuela and British Guiana.

Be it enacted by the senate and the house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the expenses of a commission to be appointed by the president to investigate and report upon the true divisional line between the republic of Venezuela and British Guiana."

A scene of considerable excitement followed the request of Mr. Hitt for unanimous consent to consider the bill which had been read by the clerk and loudly applauded. Mr. Boutelle, republican, of Maine, was on his feet in the aisle in front of Mr. Hitt. He prefaced his remarks by the statement that he disliked to object to the consideration of such a bill. "But," said he, "it seems that this subject is one of such serious importance that the house of representatives should proceed in a decorous manner to consider it. The president's message was read but yesterday and it seems to me that the gentleman may not be ready to pass on a matter of this importance without deliberation."

Cries of "ready, ready," from the republican side interrupted Mr. Boutelle, but he proceeded, arguing that the matter was one which affected the relations of the two great English-speaking nations of the world. Said he:

"I have been accused of being a gingo, whatever that may mean. I hope no one of that part of the country where I am known would believe that I would hesitate in my support, if the honor, dignity or safety of the country required, to take up arms against any or all of the nations of the world. But the press of this country seems to be in a state of feverish excitement. It seems that we ought to give this matter as much consideration as we would give to an appropriation of a few thousand dollars."

Mr. Boutelle referred to the president's message as "an extraordinary one," and went on:

"It seems that we should send to the committee to be calmly considered this great question and the message in which the executive himself, for the first time in the history of such correspondence, has outlined the possibilities of war between the two great Anglo Saxon nations of the world."

The Speaker—'Does the gentleman object?"

Mr. Boutelle said that he had merely suggested a hope that the bill go to the committee.

Mr. Hitt announced that he only desired to say a word concerning the bill and its purpose. He would do so, he said, without mentioning this side or that side, for he hoped there would be no two sides when it came to a question like this. Aside from its general discussions of matter of national policy and interests, there was a request made by the president for help from the house to enable him to exercise his executive functions.

"The first thing for us to remember as patriots," said Mr. Hitt, "is that the success of our country depends upon our maintaining a united front, that our government should speak for all the people of the United States."

The suggestion of the president was for a judicial investigation. He was sure it was made in the proper spirit and the occasion required that the country should act as one man. "In such a time the executive is hampered by every criticism that comes from our own country. It would be urged by the British press that the president was not backed by his country, but only by his own party. We have had a long time to consider the Monroe doctrine; we may not agree with all the details outlined by the president and Secretary Olney, but any discussion here will prove a help to those across the sea. I hope the bill will pass."

Mr. Hitt moved the previous question, but Mr. Crisp secured permission to say a word. He began: "I speak for all this side of the house when there is no division as to the propriety of passing the bill. This house respectfully invited the government of Great Britian to arbitrate the boundary question between Venezuela and British Guiana. Great Britian has declined. Now what are we to do. If the American people have a fixed opinion on any question they have a decisive opinion that no European country can acquire to on the American continent by force."

Mr. Hitt here entreated Mr. Crisp, in view of the magnitude of the interests involved, not to precipitate a hasty discussion of them. Mr. Crisp reminded him that the republicans had introduced the bill which he had attempted to bring in himself yesterday, and continued, saying that if the boundary could not be ascertained by arbitration with the participation of Great Britain, the United States should ascertain it at once.

"And when we have ascertained where it is," he concluded, "we should have the courage and manhood to maintain it."

Mr. Caffery and Mr. Boutelle were shouting for recognition, but Mr. Hitt refused to yield the floor and the previous question was put and carried with a shout of "ayes" and "noes."

The resolution offered by Mr. Dingley and agreed that the holiday adjournment be from Friday, December 20, to Friday, January 4 Then the house at 12:45 adjourned until Friday next.

IN THE SENATE.

Though less than a dozen senators were present when the session opened today the Venzuela issue at once came into prominence, but not directly as in the house, the senate business taking the form of measures for national defense.

In presenting a bill for the repeal of the law imposing disabilities on those who served in the war of the rebellion, Mr. Hill, democrat, of New York, spoke briefly. The main purpose, he said, was to wipe out that feature of the statute which prevented ex-Confederates from serving in the United States army and navy.

"It is most opportune at the present moment," said Mr. Hill, "that these men of the south operate with those of the north in giving the country any military or naval defence that may be required."

He spoke of the measure as a patriotic one, tending to obliterate the animosities of a war long ago closed. In conclusion Mr. Hill asked that the rules be suspended and the bill put on its immediate passage. The bill was laid upon the table for the present.

Sheriff at Rockport Opens Fire on Them

And Prevents an Entrance to the Jail to Lynch Two Negroes.

ROCKPORT, Ind., Dec. 18.—About 2 o'clock this morning Sheriff Nunn was awakened by heavy pounding on the jail door, and on looking out of his window saw the jail surrounded by a mob. He opened fire on them, when they fled in all directions, leaving their rope and sledge hammer at the jail door.

They said they wanted a negro named Tinsley, who used Deputy Marshal Logan and John Houk up so badly Saturday night. But there is another negro named Bushrod in jail, charged with attempting to assault a white woman, and they were probably after him also.

WILL NOT PRESENT HIM.

Some Other State Than Indiana Will Bring Up Gen. Harrison's Name.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 18.—It is definitely stated by republican leaders here that ex-President Harrison's name will not be presented to the St. Louis convention by the Indiana delegation. It will, however, be presented by some other state, and the republican leaders think that there will be no doubt of his nomination. Under these circumstances Harrison will accept.

Official information will be given out before long that it is Harrison's wish that the Hoosiers shall not present his name. Indirect information, coming through a reliable channel, quotes Harrison as saying that he would rather go through another Atlanta campaign than be one of the principal participants in another presidential campaign.

JUST ONE HOUR

Is Given to John Kennedy in Which to Close His Saloon.

Mayor Oakley Orders the Police to Suppress the Joint Recently Opened Near Lindenwood Cemetery.

There was a scene of more than usual interest in police court this morning.

Last Sunday night Charles Blaine got a girl named Ryan in a buggy and took her to the saloon that is run by Jerry Moriarity, near Lindenwood cemetery. The couple bought some whisky and became intoxicated. Another fellow came into the room where the girl was during Blaine's absence and when Blaine returned there was a fight, in which Blaine got the worst of it. Then the fellow who had intruded claimed he had been robbed of $20. He said the girl had taken it. The whole affair ended by the police appearing on the scene and arresting Blaine. He was to have been tried in police court this morning for being drunk and gave a bond for $50 for his appearance. The bond was signed by T. J. Baker. This morning Blaine failed to show up and the bond was declared forfeited.

In the meantime a warrant had been issued for the proprietor of the saloon and he was arrested, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. Blaine was to be the prosecuting witness, but, of course, when he failed to appear in court the case had to be dropped for want of prosecution.

A young man named John Kennedy was in court to answer to the charge of selling liquor at the place Sunday. There seemed to be a question as to whether Moriarity or Kennedy was the boss of the ranch. Mayor Oakley read the riot act to Kennedy. He told him most emphatically that the place would not be allowed to run under any circumstances and that it must be closed at once. "I will give you just one hour," said the mayor, "to go out there and close the place. In one hour from this time I will send an officer to that house to see that it is closed. I want you to understand that I mean just what I say." Then turning to Superintendent Liggett, Mayor Oakley said: "I want you to send an officer to that house in one hour and see to it that it is not allowed to remain open." The superintendent replied that he would make a personal visit himself and carry out the order.

The saloon has been operating for a few days past under a government license which Moriarity procured a week or so ago over the protest of a number of remonstrators who objected to the location of a saloon so near to Lindenwood. It has no city license, which is necessary under the four mile limit law.

Young Kennedy started out at once and said that he would go immediately and tell Moriarity what the mayor had said about the matter.

Superintendent Liggett informed THE SENTINEL this afternoon that owing to the bad weather he did not visit the saloon today. He says, however, that the instructions which the mayor gave regarding keeping it closed will be followed out in full.

HON. H. G. THAYER

Will Lecture on "Paul's Journey to Rome."

The Hon. H. G. Thayer, of Plymouth, one of the most widely traveled men in the country, will lecture at the City Y. M. C. A., in this city, Monday evening next, on "Paul's journey to Rome; his imprisonment therein, and his execution without the gates of that city." The subject is one of great interest and Mr. Thayer handles it with exceptional ability and research. The lecture is under the auspices of the Soldiers' and Sons' club and they will interest themselves in its success.

Tickets for the lecture will be on sale tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Woodworth, Gross & Pellens and Martin Detzer drug stores and at the Y. M. C. A. hall.

MR. A. J. KELLER, Fort Wayne, Ind.:

DEAR SIR:—When you were given the agency for our candies, it was with the distinct understanding that you should be our exclusive agent. If any other parties are advertising Huyler's goods they are getting their supply by some unfair means and not received direct from Huyler's, and the goods cannot be as fresh as those shipped directly to our appointed agent.

Yours very truly,

NEARLY ALL CASH.

Small Amount of Ten Year Payments on Hanna Street Pavement.

The assessment on the new Hanna street pavement from Creighton avenue to the city limits has been completed. The total amount is $9,800.17. Of this amount $1,412 17 was signed on the ten year plan and a bond for that amount has been prepared by City Comptroller Simonson and is ready for delivery to the contractor, T. B Empie, who built the payment. This amount of ten year pavements is an unusually small proportion of the total cost of the improvement. It is not common for so much to be paid in cash as was done in this case.

TWO VERDICTS.

Dr. Thayer Found Guilty of Cruelty to an Infant.

Sebastian Miller Given a Verdict of $1,700 Against the Wabash Railroad Company.

The circuit court jury in the case of the state against Dr. Frederick Thayer, for cruel treatment of an infant which was born at his lying-in home during the early part of last August, retired to their rooms about 6 o'clock last evening and at 10 o'clock had agreed upon a verdict, which was reported and read when the court convened at 9 o'clock this morning. It found Dr. Thayer guilty as charged and assessed his punishment at thirty days in jail and a fine of $50. J. H. Aiken, the deputy prosecutor, and A. H. Bittenger were the attorneys for the state. The complaint was sworn to by Humane Officer Schlaudroff at the solicitation of the people who resided in the neighborhood where the doctor lived. The defense has given notice of appeal.

The jury in the superior court at 11 o'clock this morning, in the case of Sebastian Miller against the Wabash railroad, returned a verdict of $1,700 for the plaintiff. The action was to recover $3 500 from the company, for setting fire, from their locomotives, to the muck land on plaintiff's farm and burning crops and timber. Judge and Will Colerick were attorneys for the plaintiff. The case had been on trial for five weeks and the jury fees alone amounted to $600.

WINONA ASSEMBLY

Promises to be the Greatest Summer School in the West.

The board of directors of the Winona assembly met at Indianapolis. Prof. John H. Coulter will again be at the head of the summer school. A new dormitory, a Y. P. S. C. E. building and a new double-deck steamer will be new features at Eagle Lake. Counselor Dickey reported $10,000 additional subscriptions since December 1. Judging from their proceedings, this assembly is coming to the front as one of the leading resorts of the country.

ARE YOU THIN?

Do You Want to Become Fleshy?

A FEW SIMPLE RULES

Flesh and Not Fat Is What Is Needed.

What thin people want is flesh and not fat. To be symmetrical and properly proportioned, every person should have a certain amount of flesh. To be plump does not necessarily mean to be fat. Fat is undesirable, it clogs and retards the action of every muscle, interferes with the healthy action of the heart and lungs, and when excession predisposes of fatty degeneration of vital organs; to say nothing of the discomfort more or less, resulting from excessive dispose tissue.

Common sense would suggest, that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump, the thing most needed would be flesh forming foods, in other words albuminous foods, like eggs, beef, oatmeal, etc. The kinds of food that make flesh are the foods that form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

Now, the only reason so many people remain thin is because their stomachs do not properly and completely digest and assimilate the flesh-forming beef steak and eggs we eat every day.

There are thousands of such people and they are really dyspeptics, although they may not suffer any particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would take with their meals some preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly digested and the proper degree of plumpness very soon secured, because these Tablets are prepared exactly for that purpose. They will digest every variety of flesh-forming food, which is the sole reason why they so quickly build up and strengthen thin, dyspeptic men and women.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and every form of indigestion on this common sense plan, that they digest the food promptly, giving strength to every nerve and organ in the body, while at the same time the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural vigor. Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

This excellent preparation is manufactured by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

THE name of ex-Senator James M. Barrett is being mentioned as the democratic state committeeman from this congressional district.

MR. QUAY declares he would not take the presidency if it were offered to him on a gold plate. You needn't worry, Mr. Quay. The plate isn't going to be passed around to you.

THE SENTINEL desires to remind the dozen or so gentlemen who are seeking to be delegates from this district to the republican national convention that they will have plenty of time to engage rooms at St. Louis after their election has been made sure.

SENATOR SHERMAN, one of eleven children to begin with, is said to be thirty-seven times an uncle and granduncle to sixty-three children. A man who enjoys that sort of distinction needn't worry his heart out even if he never succeeds in reaching the white house.

THE new woman in Ohio finds that her responsibilities keep pace with her privileges. The other day Justice Brown, of Cleveland, decided that wives are legally responsible for the support of their husbands and families, provided the husbands are unable to furnish support.

ANOTHER star will soon be added to our flag. Messengers with the enrolled copy of the Utah constitution and a certified copy of the votes cast thereon having reached Washington, have presented the same to the president, and within a few days a proclamation will be issued, declaring Utah a state in the union.

THE democratic national committee will meet in the city of Washington January 16, to decide where the national convention shall be held. The cities that will make the strong fight for the convention are New York, Chicago and St. Louis. It is believed that the date will be fixed not later than July.

CONGRESSMAN LEIGHTY says that he will introduce in congress a bill appropriating money to erect a monument on the site of old Fort Wayne. Part of the land included in the old site is owned by private parties, and it is probable that the appropriation would have to be large enough to provide for the purchase of the site, as well as to mark the spot.

THE ordinary way of pronouncing the word sultan is to make the u short; General Lew Wallace, ex-minister to Turkey from this country, is authority for the following pronunciation: In the word sultan the "u" has the sound of the same vowel in "full," and the "a" the sound of that vowel in "pa." The correct pronunciation might be indicated by the spelling 'suhltahn."

A SACRED hymn has been discovered among the ruins at Delphi which is of earlier date than any of the three hymns previously found. It belongs to the fourth century and is written in honor of Dionysos. A large portion of the strophies refer to the historical events then taking place, so that it is expected valuable light may be gained from the discovery on the history of that time.

DR. THOMAS, of Chicago, last Sabbath, in his pulpit, in speaking of Christian associations, said: "The only organization I know which will receive everybody, regardless of faith or unfaith, is the Salvation Army. It will help the lowest of the low. Not only will it give a poor man religious counsel, but it will feed his body and raise him up, and if he falls again it will put its arms around him and help him to stand. There is a wonderful consecration!"

THE president's message upon the Venezuelan boundary question is a strong and clear cut enunciation of the Monroe doctrine. He insists that, although the Monroe doctrine has never been admitted into an international code, as Great Britain alleges, its recognition and enforcement are essential to the peace and safety of the republic of the United States. He would deplore conflict with Great Britain, but, to use his own words, "there is no calamity which a great nation can invite which equals that which follows a supine submission to wrong and injustice and the consequent loss of national self-respect and honor beneath which is shielded and defended a people's safety and greatness." The American people are with the president in the stand he has taken.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The musical and dramatic entertainment given last evening at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth was a most successful and interesting affair. The large auditorium was filled to the doors and many were obliged to stand, as all the seats were taken before the evening's entertainment began. It is a remarkable fact that some of the children who are unable to learn to read or write are the best actors. The band did its usual good work and was heartily encored. The operetta, "The Children's Crusade," was especially interesting, while "The Jolly and Juvenile Seven," which was composed of seven small children representing the days of the week, brought down the house. The pantomime, "The Little Bachelor," was the crowning success of the evening. The characters were well chosen and the acting was above criticism, the Little Bachelor doing his part perfectly. The audience shrieked with laughter and encored the small actors as they deserved. All the other numbers were well rendered and the audience left the building thoroughly pleased with the evening's entertainment and glad that they had had the opportunity given them to contribute towards the Santa Claus' fund.

GATHERING PROOF

That Owen Mailed the Infernal Machines.

Chicago Detectives Tightening the Coils Around the Man Who Threatened Pullman and Armour.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The coils are tightening around S. A. Owen, who, it is said, mailed the infernal machines to Messrs. Pullman and Armour, and notified them in advance, in the hope of obtaining a reward. He is believed to be the same man who for ten months has been sending threatening letters to Mrs. P. D. Armour demanding $20,000, and who has successfully eluded the watchfulness of some of the best Chicago detectives. The identity of the writer of the letters and the man who mailed the infernal machine is based on the similarity of the writing. In both instances the writer disguised his handwriting by printing his letters with a pencil instead of writing.

In a written statement made by Owens today he misspelled the words "prairie', and "contents" precisely as done in addressing the packages that caused his arrest. Owens kept a billiard room recently at Honore street and Ogden avenue, which is close to a spot where, some months ago, it was demanded that Mrs. Armour should cause money to be left for the writer or be attacked with vitrol and dynamite.

Two Tails—Also Two Tales.

Several years ago one of the popular humorists, scientifically inclined, concluded to make some experiments with ice tea, the popular summer drink. The result of his investigation is given in his own words.

"I secured a sample of the tea at one of the restaurants in town to get a fair average of the article used. I took a teaspoonful of the liquid to the household pump; it was stirred into a large tub filled with water and in a moment the color of the tea had disappeared. Anyone will admit that this solution would seem harmless even to the healthy lower animals. We had some young puppies in the barn yard and I procured two of the smallest of them; they were allowed to lap at the liquid and then their heads were held under the water for fifteen minutes. It resulted in the death of both the puppies and the dangerous properties of the decoction were made apparent."

It is all very well to have all the fun we can from the experiments in food and drink, but there are many nowadays who are really hurt, and hurt seriously from the use of coffee.

A new breakfast beverage has been produced which looks like coffee in the deep seal brown color and which changes to the rich golden brown of thick Mocha when cream is added. It has been introduced extensively this season and is made from cereals, the common grain of the field. It is nourishing and healthful, without having the hurtful properties of coffee. The weakest stomach can handle the grain coffee and the taste and the color is so agreeable and coffee like that it fills the place nicely. This food drink, Postum Cereal, can be given to small children regularly for coffee at breakfast and is nourishing and fattens their bodies. It is a liquid food made from the grains the Creator intended for man's subsistence.

A six days' discussion of biblical doctrines has begun in the Belle Union church, Putnam county, between Elder Daily, representing the old school Baptist church, and Elder Williams, a Campbellite minister.

E. Campbell & Co., implement dealers, of Frankfort, have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The assets and liabilities are roughly placed at $20,000. The failure is attributed to difficulty in making collections.

The strike among the employes in the forge department of the Arcade file works, of Anderson, against A. E. Caldwell, who betrayed Robert Rich to the Kentucky prison authorities, terminated by Caldwell withdrawing.

"Lon" Skinner, son of a farmer near Westport, is under arrest charged with uttering a forged check, calling for $500, to which the name of D. F. Armstrong was signed. The check was presented to the Third National bank, Greenaburg.

Mrs. Arabella Dill, of Crawfordsville, brought suit against Alfred Pearce to recover $1,607, which her husband drew from bank and spent in "bucketshop" deals, and Judge Harney has ruled in her favor. The Central Grain and Stock exchange, of Chicago, was co-defendant.

Daring burglars have been operating at Noblesville for several nights, and the other night Sheriff Thacker's residence was plundered. The sheriff thereupon called the night policemen to task, and blows were exchanged between this official and Patrolman Rhoades during an angry discussion.

In its issue of last evening the Columbia City Post has the following: "Hon. James M. Robinson, the talented attorney who assisted in the defense of Cunningham in the murder trial, made a splendid impression upon the people of Whitley county. His plea in behalf of the defendant, covering a period of three and a quarter hours, is regarded as one of the ablest efforts ever heard in our new temple of justice. Mr. Robinson possesses remarkable oratorical ability and in the trial of a cause of such consequence proved himself a keen and far seeing lawyer. He is not too officious, protects his client's interests and fights for his rights when they are being trampled upon. Socially he is genial and kind to all, regardless of the positions they occupy in the walks of life, and this in a measure accounts for his popularity."

In speaking of Hon. H. G. Thayer, who is to lecture at the Y. M. C. A hall next Monday evening, the Rochester Republican of Monday evening says: "The announcement that Hon. H. G. Thayer would deliver a lecture at the Baptist church, in this city last evening, brought fourth an immense audience and long before the exercises began standing room was at a premium and many were compelled to return to their homes unable to gain admission. The subject of the lecture was 'St. Paul's Journey to, and His Imprisonment in Rome and His Execution Without the Gates.' Mr. Thayer is a fluent, self-possessed and entertaining speaker, and the lecture was an intellectual and literary treat to all who heard it. From the fact that the lecturer had made a visit to the old Roman capital in 1891, he was enabled to give many incidents and matters of personal observation connected with his sojourn, which were of intense interest."

Rev. C. C. Cissell, the pastor of the Berry street M. E. church, has returned from Kokomo, where he preached Sunday. Rev. Cissell succeeded in freeing the church from the $1,000 debt which hung over it, having raised by subscription $600 more than they needed for that purpose.

One of the most striking of the series of pictures which F. de Myrbach is drawing for The Century's "Life of Napoleon" will appear in the January number. It will be a big job and it must be completed by February 1 in order that the people of the lately annexed territory may gain the privileges of the next city election.

In speaking of congressional candidates the Monroeville Breeze says: "It is hinted that the Hon. James M. Robinson, of Fort Wayne, will again enter the field, seeking the seat to be filled from this, the Twelfth Indiana district. Attorney Robinson is too well known in Allen and the counties which compose this district for us to attempt to introduce him. He is certainly capable of filling the position, and we doubt if the democratic party could hew out any timber that will equal him. In his former race for the nomination he gave his opponents the hottest neck to neck race that has ever been witnessed in any convention."

PRETTY

AND ATTRACTIVE WOMEN.

Their Good Looks Not a Secret.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

No matter to what country she belongs, or whether she be black or white, as a woman she desires to look well.

Women know the influence of beauty on men; men rarely admire a beautiful invalid, but they do admire a woman in whom is blended good features and perfect health.

There is no secret about a woman's beauty; it all lies in the care she devotes to herself, to removing from her system all poisonous impurities, and keeping at bay those fearful female diseases.

The flashing eye, elastic step, and brilliant complexion are never companions of a womb trouble; only the distressed expression and aches, pains, blues, faintness, dizziness, bearing-down feeling, etc., keep it company.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removes female troubles promptly, and cleanses, invigorates, and consequently beautifies, the form of woman. Women, the world over, pay homage to it, and praise its discoverer. Your druggist sells more of it than all other female medicines.

A VETERAN GONE.

Thomas Sheppard Dies at a Ripe Old Age.

Worked for the Pennsylvania Company for Forty Years—Affairs of the Rail and Shop.

Thomas Sheppard died at his home, 189 Montgomery street, at 11 o'clock this morning, aged eighty-two years, ten months and nine days. The deceased leaves only an aged wife to mourn his demise. Thomas Sheppard worked for the Pennsylvania company for over forty years, commencing as a boilermaker in the shops in Pennsylvania before the road was completed to Fort Wayne. When shops were established here he came and worked continuously in the boiler department until six years ago, when he was taken ill and was never again able to work. The old man was a favorite with his comrades and the news of his death will be a severe shock to them, some of whom worked with him forty years ago. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, at 1:30, from the house and a half hour latter from the Berry street M. E. church.

SHOPMAN MARRIED.

Last evening, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Devlin, on South Wayne avenue, occurred the marriage of Charles Miller to Miss Georgia Devlin. Rev. Rice, of the Christian church, officiating. There were a great many guests at the wedding and the presents were numerous, varied and some of them quite valuable. Mr. Miller is a stationary engineer, employed at the Wabash shops, and resumed work this morning as if nothing out of the ordinary line had occurred. He had a cigar for each friend who dropped into the engine room today to congratulate him.

PRESIDENT MAYER RESIGNS.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 18.—President Mayer, of the Baltimore and Ohio, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted, but he will retain the office until his successor shall be elected.

BRIEF MENTION.

Tomorrow is pay day at the Wabash shops and offices.

Charles Broeking, of the electric works, is sick and off duty.

Nickel Plate Fireman Charles Jerome is off duty on account of sickness.

The Harry Russell theatrical troupe went to Huntington this morning.

Lawrence Hathner left over the Wabash last evening for Heustis, Texas.

Herman Hollanbeck has taken a position in the metre department of the electric works.

Engineer Tim Short and Fireman C. Allen, of the Nickel Plate, are enjoying a few days' rest.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana company has just completed a new passenger station at Winchester, Ind.

Frank Hobbs, of the Wabash shops, has gone to the country to see his father-in-law, who is lying very ill.

Brakeman J. H. Kepler, of Conductor C. Kaylor's local freight crew, on the Nickel Plate, is sick and off duty.

Fireman T. J. Lynch has been assigned to engine 95, on the Nickel Plate, with Engineer George Dunann.

Henry Cowden, wire chief of the Pittsburg, and his wife went to Chicago this morning to spend a few days.

Louis Fryer, foreman of the winding room at the electric works, will move into his new house on Breckenridge street tomorrow.

George McCormick, the Nickel Plate conductor who sprained his back severely a week ago, was able to resume train duties again yesterday.

Private affairs are absorbing the attention of Nickel Plate Conductor Chris Stemen at present and he has been off duty for several days.

George Wood came home from Syracuse, N. Y., last evening and this morning left for Nashville, Tenn., on business for the Electric corporation.

Joseph Haley, the well known Nickel Plate passenger engineer, has recovered from his recent illness, and has resumed his position at the throttle.

John Weber, John Hohn and Geo. Harris, Pittsburg round house employes, have resumed work after being absent several days on account of sickness.

H. P. Adams, J. M. Reed and Fred H. Wells left on the Wabash train this morning for Denver, Col. George L Clayton took the same train for Decatur, Ill.

William S. Bittler, foreman of the water department of the Pittsburg, has returned from Valparaiso, where he has a gang at work in changing the water pipes to conform with the new order of things, occasioned by a new double track.

Pittsburg coach No. 47 went into the shops for repairs this morning.

Otto Stoll, of the Bass blacksmith shop, is sick and unable to work.

The Bass works shipped a boiler and a car load of steam fixtures to Henderson, Ky., yesterday.

Peter Conroy and Frank X. Miller, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, are on the sick list today.

J. C. Peeples, of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a visit with his parents in Decatur, Ind.

John Fraine has recovered his health and this morning resumed work in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop.

Machinist W. H. Noble, of the Pittsburg shops, was called to Maysville this morning on important business.

Philip E. Hess and A. K. Richards, machinists in the Pittsburg shops, are off duty on account of sickness.

Joe Rauner, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, has gone to Elwood, Ind., to remain until after the holidays.

John Ryan has returned from Warsaw and resumed his duties in the Pittsburg shops. He is a coppersmith.

Engine tank No. 6 was turned out of the Pittsburg shops this morning and sent to Toledo, where its engine is stationed.

R. Breeze, of the air brake department of the Pittsburg shops, will spend the holidays with his mother at Bellefountain, Pa.

C. Kronemiller has been transferred from the Pittsburg planing mills to the east car shop offices to do clerical work for a few days.

Ed Kelty, a former Fort Wayne man, now clerk in the supervisor's office at Warsaw, was here yesterday circulating among old friends.

Herbert Stonecifer, a son of Conductor Ben Stonecifer, of the Muncie, is now a member of Mr. Graham's clerical force, in the east car shops.

Samuel Murphy, foreman of painters at the east car shops, is slowly recovering from a severe illness, though still barely able to walk about his room.

Louis Hibler, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is still confined to his bed with lung fever, though he is improving and hopes to be out in a few, days.

Frank Parnin, Nickel Plate baggagemaster, is off duty on account of the death of his wife's father and the night baggagemaster, Ed Pfeiffer, is doing double duty.

Eastbound shipments from Chicago last week amounted to 83,996 tons, against 72,632 for the preceding week and 40,486 for the corresponding week of last year.

John Hickman, a machinist who had been employed in the Pittsburg round house for some time, resigned yesterday and will return to his old home, Jackson, Mich.

The Fort Wayne shops are doing considerable work for other roads in the Pennsylvania system at present. Today engine 119, which belongs to the Toledo branch, was turned out after thorough repairs and No. 906, from the same road, was taken in for repairs.

W. H. Hayes, Pittsburg switchman, will leave tonight for Fallston, Pa., to attend the funeral of his grandmother. He was apprised of her death this morning by a telegram.

W. A. Murray, of the Chicago and Alton, and A. E. Cronenwett, of the Rock Island, traveling passenger agents, were circulating among the local agents yesterday.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, left on the Pennsylvania limited this morning for Chicago, on business for the works. He will return tomorrow.

Ernest Tegtmeyer has returned to the erecting department of the Pittsburg shops, after running an axle lathe in Capt. R. H. Harrison's department a couple of days.

William Hamilton, of the Bass blacksmith shop, and a young lady named Miss Kaylor, will be married tomorrow. Mr. Hamilton is off duty today preparing for the wedding.

Henry Regel, Jacob Luley, jr, and Clem Reed, who were suspended from the Bass shops two weeks ago on account of temporary lull in work, were reinstated this morning.

F. S. Huntingileft this morning for Bloomington, Ill., where he is superintending the erection of an immense lighting plant in the place of one which was destroyed some time ago.

With Mr. Hays taking charge as general manager of the Grand Trunk it is believed that much closer traffic relations will be established between the Wabash and the Grand Trunk.

Thomas C. Stonebrook, the painter, and his family, will leave next Friday for Kansas City to visit Mrs. Stonebrook's parents. Tommy will return home in a week, but Mrs. Stonebrook and children will remain a month.

The Illinois State Grange association desires a straight 2-cent per-mile railroad fare. The Chicago & Alton is about the only line in Illinois that is willing and can stand a 2 cent-a-mile passenger rate.

Henry Woenker has been promoted from a roundhouse helper to a machinist and placed in the Pittsburg air brake department. Mr. Woenker is a very worthy young man and deserved the promotion.

It is believed that W. C Brown, general manager of the Missouri lines of the Burlington system, will succeed W. F. Merrill, general manager of the entire Burlington route, when the latter retires January 1.

La Grippe has made its appearance again among the shopmen, and among those who are afflicted with the disease is Nick Madden, of the Pittsburg, who has been unable to work for several days. He is improving, however.

Engine 218, which since the world's fair has hauled the Pennsylvania pay train over the western lines of the system, is in the shop to receive new tires on her driver wheels. This is a Boone engine, built in 1873.

Frank Gephard, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, has returned from Huntington, where he visited a few days. Yesterday afternoon he was down town and dropped a $5 bill from his vest pocket on Calhoun street, near Wayne, which is still missing.

Mrs. William J. Swartzel, of No. 109 John street, received this morning a draft for $2,000 in payment of the policy her husband held in the Ancient Order of United Workmen. Mr. Swartzel was a moulder at the Bass works and died about two months ago. He was a member of Summit City lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W.

The Nickel Plate is again short of water in western Ohio and a train has been engaged in hauling water for several days. The rain of yesterday and last night will probably fill up the wells in the drought stricken districts and render water hauling unnecessary in the future.

William Hurlbut, who has been firing a Nickel Plate switch engine for a couple of weeks, will return to the through freight service, having been assigned to engine 16, with Engineer Staver. Thomas Albright will take the position on the yard engine, with Engineer J. Quinn.

Louis J. Cordaway, a brother to Fireman Cordaway, of the Nickel Plate, arrived in the city a few days ago and will make Fort Wayne his future home. For the past three years Mr. Cordaway has been in California, working upon a fruit farm. He will probably return to firing on some railroad.

Eugene V. Debs severed his membership with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen yesterday. He belonged to the Terre Haute lodge and in his letter of withdrawal he says he does it because he believes his course lies in a different direction from that pursued by the brotherhood. There was a time when he believed in the brotherhood, but that time has passed.

Election Notice.

There will be an election of officers of Summit Encampment, No. 16, I. O. O. F., December 20, 1895, for the ensuing term; also to elect three trustees to serve one year. All members are requested to be present.

Open Evenings Until Christmas.

There is evidently at hand the biggest Christmas trade Fort Wayne has ever enjoyed.

We have already a very large number of articles selected and laid by for delivery at Christmas time.

Our store crowded with beautiful things

No such display ever made at Holiday time before.

Useful presents are always the most acceptable.

Trade in the forenoon when you can conveniently, and thus avoid the crowd of the afternoon.

OUR STOCK AGGREGATED IN VALUE $50,000.

The rapidity with which our stock has been reduced speaks in most eloquent language of the confidence the public has in us, the truthfulness of our statements that we are giving to the people of Fort Wayne greater bargains than ever given before.

ALL THESE MUST GO. No establishment in the city has a more complete and elegant line of

HOLIDAY PRESENTS

Than we have. Remember all our goods are new. It has always been our endeavor to get the best goods. This year we fairly outdone all our previous efforts, never before has such a selection been offered, especially at such low prices, in this as in all other departments.

PRICES HAVE BEEN CUT IN TWO.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Bobbing for Whales

With a bent pin on a cotton string is about as fruitless as trying to do business in Fort Wayne without advertising in The Sentinel.

ESTABLISHED 1833. WEDNESDAY, DEC. 18, 1895. PRICE TWO CENTS.

COATS +

You'd come here for coats today if you understood what exceptionally fine chances await you. This department has taken a firm hold on public favor through superior quality of goods and unmatchable lowness of price. Of course you understand the impossibility of specifying in an advertisement every bargain we have to offer. You will be convinced by getting our prices.

Is the Philadelphia Street Car Strike.

The Union Traction Company Tied Up.

Cars are Run Under Protection of Police.

One Thousand Extra Patrolmen Called Out—Mayor Ready for Any Emergency That May Arise.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18—The second day of the big strike of employes of the Union Traction company opens with the situation practically unchanged as far as the running of cars is concerned. All the branches are in effect tied up, although cars with formidable escorts of police have made the circuit of nearly every one of them without molestation. While this enables the officials to declare that the lines are open, it does not help the situation much as far as the convenience of the riding public is concerned.

There have perhaps been more cars on Chestnut street than any other thoroughfare in the city. At irregular intervals this morning the immense concourse of pedestrians which the strike has forced onto that always crowded street have been treated to the extraordinary spectacle of a trolley car moving slowly down the street, preceded and followed by four mounted policemen, and carrying on the front and rear platforms an aggregate of five policemen. Each officer is armed with a heavy oak night stick. The chances are that in addition to this array the motorman or conductor is a deputy marshal, wearing pinned under the coat the silver star which denotes authority, as many deputies are said to running cars.

Up to the hour of writing this dispatch, not more than a dozen cars have made their way down Chestnut street, and all of them were escorted in the manner described above. There are very few passengers, as the cars proceed so slowly that walking is preferable. Fortunately the weather is beautiful.

Mayor Warwick and Director of Public Safety Belsler, who spent the night in their offices in the city hall, ready for any emergency which might arise, reported this morning with an evident air of relief that reports from all sections of the city are to the effect that everything is quiet today. This condition is without doubt due in a large measure to the determined stand taken by the mayor last night, when he served notice that it was no longer a fight between the traction company and the strikers, but a battle between the city and mob violence, and that the city would win. To this end nearly a thousand extra police were sworn in, the men being picked from the applicants for appointment who had passed the necessary physical examination. These, with the regulars, constituted an army of over 2,000 men and everyone of them is on duty today. The big car sheds and power houses in various parts of the city were vigilantly guarded all night, but there was apparently no necessity for the presence of the police as no attempt at violence was made. The striker's headquarters, at Eighteenth and Callowhill streets, some distance from the various depots of the branches of the Union Traction company, was deserted soon after midnight, and none of the leaders made their appearance up to noon today. In the neighborhood of the big car sheds are rows of small dwellings occupied mainly by the employes of the company, and in these localities is naturally much excitement. The streets are filled at all times with the families of the strikers and their sympathizers, who discuss the situation and abuse the men at work.

On Market street, the authorities have stationed two mounted policemen at each corner in addition to the two or more on foot. Duequine street, the street which was the scene of most of yesterday's rioting, is the most carefully guarded today, but the disciplinary element seems to be either cowed or indifferent, for there has as far been no sign of disturbance on their streets or in any other locality. Every other man wears a card bearing the words, "I will walk," stuck in his hat band or pinned to his coat, and many women are wearing them, too.

The officials of the company declare they have plenty of men to run the cars if they can get protection for them. On the other hand the strikers declare that enough skilled men to take their places cannot be obtained. The strike has proven a windfall of considerable magnitude to the single independent line in the city which resisted the pressure when the big consolidation of all the other lines was recently effected. The company runs its cars to West Philadelphia on Arch and Vine streets, and in its endeavor to accommodate all the people certain wish to patronize it, have pressed into service every rumshaw car and even resurrected some which had been permanently sent to the hospital. Every car turn is packed to the roof and the officials contemplate the situation with a large degree of satisfaction. The Broad street omnibus line, controlled by the troubled Union Traction company, ran its buses yesterday, but today, for some reason, there are only a few on the streets. The suburban cars of the Pennsylvania and the Reading Railroad companies were again crowded to their utmost capacity today.

FIVE MEN KILLED

By an Explosion on the Steamer, St. Paul.

The Accident Believed to Have Been Due to a Flaw in the Steam Pipes.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Five men were killed and six injured this morning by the explosion of a steam pipe on the American line steamer St. Paul, while the vessel lay at her dock at the foot of Fulton street, North River. The dead are:

James Fawns, assistant engineer, England.

Manning, fourth assistant engineer.

Robert Campbell, machinist, New York.

George Williams, machinist, Hoboken, N. J.

Daniel McCullion, machinist's helper, Brooklyn.

The injured are: Frank Vespers, third assistant engineer, Roxbury, Mass.; Andrew Heard, storekeeper, Scotland; Dunham, machinist, England; A. Fogel, cleaner, Scotland; Edward Wisbert, engineer. All these were seriously scalded and taken to the Hudson street hospital.

At the time of the accident, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, there were thirty men of the crew in the fire room and night in the engine room. The main steam pipe, which is three feet in diameter, runs from the engine to the fire rooms. It was this pipe which exploded. The main stop valve was blown out. The accident is believed to have been due to a flaw in the pipe.

Preparations were being made for the sailing of the vessel at 11 o'clock, but fortunately none of the passengers were aboard of the vessel. The explosion was of terrific force and shook the big vessel from stem to stern. Following the report was the sound of escaping steam. It poured up to the deck from the engine room in clouds and completely enveloped the vicinity. From above the noise of the escaping steam could be heard the cries of the men who had been at work in the engine room, injured by the explosion.

The nature of the explosion was such that it rendered access to the locality extremely difficult. As quickly as possible the steam was turned off. Almost simultaneously four half dead men scrambled up the iron stairway leading from the engine room and fell prostrate upon the port side of the vessel. They were hurried into the cabin and restoratives administered to them. Two other men terribly scalded were found in an almost unconscious condition lying near the bottom of the stairway and were lifted up to the deck.

As soon as the steam had cleared away sufficiently to render seeing the surroundings five men were found lying in various parts of the compartment dead. They had all been scalded to death, and their faces and those parts of the body which were not covered by their clothing looked as if they had been parboiled. The bodies were covered over where they were found lying with pieces of tarpaulin, and ward was sent to the coroner's office.

The probable result of the injuries received by Wilson, Vesper, Folkers and Heard cannot be foretold by the surgeons. It is likely, however, that some of the men cannot survive.

Engineer Clark said that he was sure that the vessel could not sail within a week, for it would require at least that time to make the necessary repairs. The steamer has made three round trips.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE.

The Comment Concerning It in London.

LONDON, Dec. 18—In spite of the prominence which all the newspapers give to President Cleveland's message to congress on the Venezuelan boundary question, the general public here refuses to get excited or even interested in the matter. At the hotels, clubs, railroad stations, etc., the matter is rarely alluded to. Those who have read the correspondence regret President Cleveland's attitude, but the almost invariable answer received to the reporter's inquiries for an expression of opinion is: "What is it all about, any way?" The message, however, is being used on the stock exchange to hammer American securities. Consols also declined, but there was no excitement.

One newspaper remarked: "The Yankee jabbers are the only persons injured by the message and they have just ground for complaint."

The editorial comments of the New York World and the New York Evening Post on the situation are reprinted here with approval, as indicating American opinion on the situation. The radical evening newspapers take the most serious view of the situation. The Star, in a double column, asks: "Is it war?"

Editorially, the Star remarks: "It is difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the situation. The United States may be assured that Englishmen, regardless of party, will abide firmly by Lord Salisbury's claims and will not submit to bounce."

"Public opinion," says the Westminster Gazette, "will unanimously support Lord Salisbury, but it is a pity he enlarged the dispute and attacked the Monroe doctrine."

WARLIKE!

Is the Attitude of Uncle Sam.

The Venezuelan Affair Creates Excitement.

The House Comes Boldly Forward With a Bill,

Authorizing the President to Appoint a Venezuelan Commission and Appropriates $100,000 for Expenses.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—Mr. Hitt, republican, of Illinois, rose in the house this morning as soon as it had been called to order and asked for unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill to empower the president to appoint a commission to consider the Venezuelan boundary question and to appropriate $100,000 for the expenses thereof. The text of the bill is as follows:

"A bill making an appropriation for the expenses of a commission to investigate and report upon the true divisional line between the republic of Venezuela and British Guiana.

Be it enacted by the senate and the house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated for the expenses of a commission to be appointed by the president to investigate and report upon the true divisional line between the republic of Venezuela and British Guiana."

A scene of considerable excitement followed the request of Mr. Hitt for unanimous consent to consider the bill which had been read by the clerk and loudly applauded. Mr. Boutelle, republican, of Maine, was on his feet in the aisle in front of Mr. Hitt. He protested his remarks by the statement that he disliked to object to the consideration of such a bill. "But," said he, "it seems that this subject is one of such serious importance that the house of representatives should proceed in a decorous manner to consider it. The president's message was read but yesterday and it seems to me that the gentleman may not be ready to pass on a matter of this importance without deliberation."

Cries of "ready, ready," from the republican side interrupted Mr. Boutelle, but he proceeded, arguing that the matter was one which affected the relations of the two great English-speaking nations of the world. Said he:

"I have been accused of being a gringo, whatever that may mean. I hope no one of that part of the country where I am known would believe that I would hesitate in my support, if the honor, dignity or safety of the country required, to take up arms against any or all of the nations of the world. But the press of this country seems to be in a state of feverish excitement. It seems that we ought to give this matter as much consideration as we would give to an appropriation of a few thousand dollars."

Mr. Boutelle referred to the president's message as "an extraordinary one," and went on:

"It seems that we should send to the committee to be calmly considered this great question and the message in which the executive himself, for the first time in the history of such correspondence, has outlined the possibilities of war between the two great Anglo Saxon nations of the world."

The Speaker—"Does the gentleman object?"

Mr. Boutelle said that he had merely suggested a hope that the bill go to the committee.

Mr. Hitt announced that he only desired to say a word concerning the bill and its purpose. He would do so, he said, without mentioning this side or that side, for he hoped there would be no two sides when it came to a question like this. Aside from its general discussions of matter of national policy and interests, there was a request made by the president for help from the house to enable him to exercise his executive functions.

"The first thing for us to remember as patriots," said Mr. Hitt, "is that the success of our country depends upon our maintaining a united front, that our government should speak for all the people of the United States."

The suggestion of the president was for a judicial investigation. He was sure it was made in the proper spirit and the occasion required that the country should act as one man. In such a time the executive is hampered by every criticism that comes from our own country. It would be urged by the British press that the president was not backed by his country, but only by his own party. We have had a long time to consider the Monroe doctrine; we may not agree with all the details outlined by the president and Secretary Olney, but any discussion here will prove a help to those across the sea. I hope the bill will pass."

Mr. Hitt moved the previous question, but Mr. Crisp secured permission to say a word. He began: "I speak for all this side of the house where there is no division as to the propriety of passing the bill. This house respectfully invited the government of Great Britian to arbitrate the boundary question between Venezuela and British Guiana. Great Britian has declined. Now what are we to do. If the American people have a fixed opinion on any question they have a decisive opinion that no European country can aquire to on the American continent by force."

Mr. Hitt here entreated Mr. Crisp, in view of the magnitude of the interests involved, not to precipitate a hasty discussion of them. Mr. Crisp reminded him that the republicans had introduced the bill which he had attempted to bring in himself yesterday, and continued, saying that if the boundary could not be ascertained by arbitration with the participation of Great Britain, the United States should ascertain it at once.

"And when we have ascertained where it is," he concluded, "we should have the courage and manhood to maintain it."

Mr. Caffery and Mr. Bouicile were shouting for recognition, but Mr. Hitt refused to yield the floor and the previous question was put and carried with a shout of "ayes" and "noes."

The resolution offered by Mr. Dingley and agreed that the holiday adjournment be from Friday, December 20, to Friday, January 3. Then the house at 12:45 adjourned until Friday next.

IN THE SENATE.

Though less than a dozen senators were present when the session opened today the Venezuela issue at once came into prominence, but not directly as in the house, the senate business taking the form of measures for national defense.

In presenting a bill for the repeal of the law imposing disabilities on those who served in the war of the rebellion, Mr. Hill, democrat, of New York, spoke briefly. The main purpose, he said, was to wipe out that feature of the statute which prevented ex-Confederates from serving in the United States army and navy.

"It is most opportune at the present moment," said Mr. Hill, "that these men of the south operate with those of the north in giving the country any military or naval defense that may be required."

He spoke of the measure as a patriotic one, tending to obliterate the animosities of a war long ago closed. In conclusion Mr. Hill asked that the rules be suspended and the bill put on its immediate passage. The bill was laid upon the table for the present.

And Prevents an Entrance to the Jail to Lynch Two Negroes.

ROCKPORT, Ind., Dec. 18—About 2 o'clock this morning Sheriff Nunn was awakened by heavy pounding on the jail door, and on looking out of his window saw the jail surrounded by a mob. He opened fire on them, when they fled in all directions, leaving their rope and sledge hammer at the jail door.

They said they wanted a negro named Tinsley, who used Deputy Marshal Lozane and John Houk up so badly Saturday night. But there is another negro named Bushrod in jail, charged with attempting to assault a white woman, and they were probably after him also.

WILL NOT PRESENT HIM.

Some Other State Than Indiana Will Bring Up Hon. Harrison's Name.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 18—It is definitely stated by republican leaders here that ex-President Harrison's name will not be presented to the St. Louis convention by the Indiana delegation. It will, however, be presented by some other state, and the republican leaders think that there will be no doubt of his nomination. Under these circumstances Harrison will accept.

Official information will be given out before long that it is Harrison's wish that the Hoosiers shall not present his name. Indirect information, coming through a reliable channel, quotes Harrison as saying that he would rather go through another Atlanta campaign than be one of the principal participants in another presidential campaign.

JUST ONE HOUR

Is Given to John Kennedy in Which to Close His Saloon.

Mayor Oakley Orders the Police to Suppress the Joint Recently Opened Near Lindenwood Cemetery.

There was a scene of more than usual interest in police court this morning.

Last Sunday night Charles Blaine got a girl named Ryan in a buggy and took her to the saloon that is run by Jerry Moriarity, near Lindenwood cemetery. The couple bought some whisky and became intoxicated. Another fellow came into the room where the girl was during Blaine's absence and when Blaine returned there was a fight, in which Blaine got the worst of it. Then the fellow who had intruded claimed he had been robbed of $20. He said the girl had taken it. The whole affair ended by the police appearing on the scene and arresting Blaine. He was to have been tried in police court this morning for being drunk and gave a bond for $50 for his appearance. The bond was signed by T. J. Baker. This morning Blaine failed to show up and the bond was declared forfeited.

In the meantime a warrant had been issued for the proprietor of the saloon and he was arrested, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. Blaine was to be the prosecuting witness, but, of course, when he failed to appear in court the case had to be dropped for want of prosecution.

A young man named John Kennedy was in court to answer to the charge of selling liquor at the place Sunday. There seemed to be a question as to whether Moriarity or Kennedy was the boss of the ranch. Mayor Oakley read the riot act to Kennedy. He told him most emphatically that the place would not be allowed to run under any circumstances and that it must be closed at once. "I will give you just one hour," said the mayor, "to go out there and close the place. In one hour from this time I will send an officer to that house to see that it is closed. I want you to understand that I mean just what I say." Then turning to Superintendent Liggett, Mayor Oakley said: "I want you to send an officer to that house in one hour and see to it that it is not allowed to remain open." The superintendent replied that he would make a personal visit himself and carry out the order.

The saloon has been operating for a few days past under a government license which Moriarity procured a week or so ago over the protest of a number of remonstrators who objected to the location of a saloon so near to Lindenwood. It has no city license, which is necessary under the four mile limit law.

Young Kennedy started out at once and said that he would go immediately and tell Moriarity what the mayor had said about the matter.

Superintendent Liggett informed The Sentinel this afternoon that owing to the bad weather he did not visit the saloon today. He says, however, that the instructions which the mayor gave regarding keeping it closed will be followed out in full.

HON. H. G. THAYER

Will Lecture on "Paul's Journey to Rome."

The Hon. H. G. Thayer, of Plymouth, one of the most widely traveled men in the country, will lecture at the City Y. M. C. NEARLY ALL CASH.

Small Amount of Ten Year Payments on Huron Street Pavement.

The assessment on the new Huron street pavement from Creighton avenue to the city limits has been completed. The total amount is $9,894.17. Of this amount $1,412.17 was signed on the ten year plan and a bond for that amount has been prepared by City Comptroller Simonson and is ready for delivery to the contractor, T. H Engle, who built the pavement. This amount of ten year payments is an unusually small proportion of the total cost of the improvement. It is not common for so much to be paid in cash as was done in this case.

TWO VERDICTS.

Dr. Thayer Found Guilty of Cruelty to an Infant.

Sentence Suller Given a Verdict of $1,500 Against the Wabash Railroad Company.

The circuit court jury in the case of the state against Dr. Frederick Thayer, for cruel treatment of an infant which was born at his lying-in home during the early part of last August, retired to their rooms about 5 o'clock last evening and at 10 o'clock had agreed upon a verdict, which was reported and read when the court convened at 9 o'clock this morning. It found Dr. Thayer guilty as charged and assessed his punishment at thirty days in jail and a fine of $50. J. H. Aiken, the deputy prosecutor, and A. H. Bittenger were the attorneys for the state. The complaint was sworn to by Humane Officer Schlaudroff at the solicitation of the people who resided in the neighborhood where the doctor lived. The defense has given notice of appeal.

The jury in the superior court at 11 o'clock this morning in the case of Sebastian Miller against the Wabash railroad, returned a verdict of $1,700 for the plaintiff. The action was to recover $3,500 from the company, for setting fire, from their locomotives, to the muck land on plaintiff's farm and burning crops and timber. Judge and Will Colerick were attorneys for the plaintiff. The case had been on trial for five weeks and the jury fees alone amounted to $500.

WINONA ASSEMBLY

Promises to be the Greatest Summer School in the West.

The board of directors of the Winona assembly met at Indianapolis. Prof. John H. Coulter will again be at the head of the summer school. A new dormitory, a Y. P. S. C. E. building and a new double deck steamer will be new features at Eagle Lake. Counselor Dickey reported $10,000 additional subscriptions since December 1. Judging from their proceedings, this assembly is coming to the front as one of the leading resorts of the country.

ARE YOU THIN?

Do You Want to Become Plump?

A FEW SIMPLE RULES

Flesh and Not Fat Is What Is Needed.

What thin people want is flesh and not fat. To be normal and and properly proportioned, every person should have a certain amount of flesh. To be plump does not necessarily mean to be fat. Fat is undesirable, it clogs and retards the action of every muscle, interferes with the healthy action of the heart and lungs, and when circulation predisposes of fatty degeneration of vital organs; to say nothing of the discomfort, more or less, resulting from excessive adipose tissue.

Common sense would suggest, that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump, the thing most needed would be flesh forming foods, in other words albuminous foods, like eggs, beef, oatmeal, etc. The kinds of food that make flesh are the foods that form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

Why, the only reason so many people remain thin is because their stomachs do not properly and completely digest and assimilate the flesh-forming beef steak and eggs we eat every day.

There are thousands of such people and they are really desperate, although they may not suffer any particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would take with their meals a proper preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly digested and the proper degree of plumpness very soon cured, because these Tablets are prepared exactly for that purpose. They will digest every variety of flesh-forming food, which is the sole reason why they so quickly build up and strengthen thin, dyspeptic men and women.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and every form of indigestion on the common sense plan, that they digest the food promptly, bring strength to the nerve centers and organs in the body, while at the same time the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural vigor. Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make any dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

This excellent preparation is manufactured by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

THE name of ex-Senator James M. Barrett is being mentioned as the democratic state committeeman from this congressional district.

MR. QUAY declares he would not take the presidency if it were offered to him on a gold plate. You needn't worry, Mr. Quay. The plate isn't going to be passed around to you.

THE SENTINEL desires to remind the dozen or so gentlemen who are seeking to be delegates from this district to the republican national convention that they will have plenty of time to engage rooms at St. Louis after their election has been made sure.

SENATOR SHERMAN, one of eleven children to begin with, is said to be thirty-seven times an uncle and granduncle to sixty-three children. A man who enjoys that sort of distinction needn't worry his heart out even if he never succeeds in reaching the white house.

THE new woman in Ohio finds that her responsibilities keep pace with her privileges. The other day Justice Brown, of Cleveland, decided that wives are legally responsible for the support of their husbands and families, provided the husbands are unable to furnish support.

ANOTHER star will soon be added to our flag. Messengers with the enrolled copy of the Utah constitution and a certified copy of the votes cast thereon having reached Washington, have presented the same to the president, and within a few days a proclamation will be issued, declaring Utah a state in the union.

THE democratic national committee will meet in the city of Washington January 10, to decide where the national convention shall be held. The cities that will make the strong fight for the convention are New York, Chicago and St. Louis. It is believed that the date will be fixed not later than July.

CONGRESSMAN LIMBUTT says that he will introduce in congress a bill appropriating money to erect a monument on the site of old Fort Wayne. Part of the land included in the old site is owned by private parties, and it is probable that the appropriation would have to be large enough to provide for the purchase of the site, as well as to mark the spot.

THE ordinary way of pronouncing the word sultan is to make the u short. General Lew Wallace, ex-minister to Turkey from this country, is authority for the following pronunciation: In the word sultan the "u" has the sound of the same vowel in "full," and the "a" the sound of that vowel in "pa." The correct pronunciation might be indicated by the spelling "sultahn."

A GREEK hymn has been discovered among the ruins at Delphi which is of earlier date than any of the three hymns previously found. It belongs to the fourth century and is written in honor of Dionysos. A large portion of the strophics refer to the historical events then taking place, so that it is expected valuable light may be gained from the discovery on the history of that time.

DR. THOMAS, of Chicago, last Sabbath, in his pulpit, in speaking of Christian associations, said: "The only organization I know which will receive everybody, regardless of faith or beliefs, is the Salvation Army. It will help the lowest of the low. Not only will it give a poor man religious counsel, but it will feed his body and raise him up, and if he falls again it will put its arms around him and help him to stand. There is a wonderful consecration!"

THE president's message upon the Venezuelan boundary question is a strong and clear out enunciation of the Monroe doctrine. He insists that, although the Monroe doctrine has never been admitted into an international code, as Great Britain alleges, its recognition and enforcement are essential to the peace and safety of the republic of the United States. He would deplore conflict with Great Britain, but, to use his own words, "there is no calamity which a great nation can invite which equals that which follows a supine submission to wrong and injustice and the consequent loss of national self-respect and honor beneath which is shielded and defended a people's safety and greatness." The American people are with the president in the stand he has taken.

The musical and dramatic entertainment given last evening at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth was a most successful and interesting affair. The large auditorium was filled to the doors and many were obliged to stand, as all the seats were taken before the evening's entertainment began.

It is remarkable fact that some of the children who are unable to learn to read or write are the best actors. The band did its usual good work and was literally encored. The operetta, "The Children's Crusade," was especially interesting, while "The Jolly and Juvenile Seven," which was composed of seven small children representing the days of the week, brought down the house. The pantomime, "The Little Bachelor," was the crowning success of the evening. The characters were well chosen and the acting was above criticism, the Little Bachelor doing his part perfectly. The audience shrieked with laughter and encored the small actors as they deserved. All the other numbers were well rendered and the audience left the building thoroughly pleased with the evening's entertainment and glad that they had had the opportunity given them to contribute towards the Santa Claus' fund.

GATHERING PROOF

That Owen Mailed the Infernal Machines.

Chicago Detectives Tightening the Coils Around the Man Who Threatened Pullman and Armour.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The coils are tightening around S. A. Owen, who, it is said, mailed the infernal machines to Messrs. Pullman and Armour, and notified them in advance, in the hope of obtaining a reward. He is believed to be the same man who for ten months has been sending threatening letters to Mrs. P. D. Arms our demanding $20,000, and who has successfully eluded the watchfulness of some of the best Chicago detectives. The identity of the writer of the letters and the man who mailed the infernal machine is based on the similarity of the writing. In both instances the writer disguised his hand writing by printing his letters with a pencil instead of writing.

In a written statement made by Owens today he misspelled the words "prairie," and "ecstacie" precisely as done in addressing the packages that caused his arrest. Owens kept a billiard room recently at Monroe street and Ogden avenue, which is close to a spot where, some months ago, it was demanded that Mrs. Armour should cause money to be left for the writer or be attacked with vitriol and dynamite.

THE TRIO—Also Two Tales.

Several years ago one of the popular humorists, scientifically inclined, concluded to make some experiments with ice tea, the popular summer drink. The result of his investigation is given in his own words.

"I secured a sample of the tea at one of the restaurants in town to get a fair average of the article used. I took a tea-spoonful of the liquid to the household pump; it was stirred into a large tub filled with water and in a moment the color of the tea had disappeared. Anyone will admit that this solution would seem harmless even to the healthy lower animals. We had some young puppies in the barn yard and I procured two of the smallest of them; they were allowed to lap at the liquid and then their heads were held under the water for fifteen minutes. It resulted in the death of both the puppies and the dangerous properties of the decoction were made apparent."

It is all very well to have all the fun we can from the experiments in food and drink, but there are many nowadays who are really hurt and hurt seriously from the use of coffee.

A new breakfast beverage has been produced which looks like coffee in the deep seal brown color and which changes to the rich golden brown of thick Mocha when cream is added. It has been introduced extensively this season and is made from cereals, the common grain of the field. It is nourishing and healthful, without having the hurtful properties of coffee. The weakest stomach can handle the grain coffee and the taste and the color is so agreeable and coffee like that it fills the place nicely. This food drink, Postum Cereal, can be given to small children regularly for coffee at breakfast and is nourishing and fattens their bodies. It is a liquid food made from the grains the Creator intended for man's subsistence.

STATE NEWS.

Wilson Lewis, of Lafayette, had his skull fractured in a runaway accident.

Mrs. Lena Van Capon, of Petersburg, attempted suicide with poison, assigning no cause.

A new Presbyterian church at Montpelier has been dedicated. The Rev. F. E. Willman is pastor.

Roy Nicholls, a Big Four brakeman, of Union City, fell from his train and was killed, near De Graff, Ohio.

Gen. James G. Veach, of Rockport, continues alarmingly ill, and no hope of recovery is entertained. He is seventy-six years old.

Webster Negley, twenty-five years old, of Union City, attempted to board a moving train at Winchester and was killed by falling under the wheels.

Oliver P. Harshman has brought suit at Frankfort against Wm. P. Boyd, claiming $5,000, and alleging that the defendant alienated the affections of Mrs. Harsham. The men married sisters.

A six days' discussion of biblical doctrines has begun in the Belle Union church, Putnam county, between Elder Daily, representing the old school Baptist church, and Elder Williams, a Campbellite minister.

E. Campbell & Co., implement dealers, of Frankfort, have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The assets and liabilities are roughly placed at $30,000. The failure is attributed to difficulty in making collections.

The strike among the employes in the forge department of the Arcade file works, of Anderson, against A. E. Caldwell, who betrayed Robert Rink to the Kentucky prison authorities, terminated by Caldwell withdrawing.

"Tom" Skinner, son of a former near Westport, is under arrest charged with uttering a forged check, calling for $500, to which the name of D. F. Armstrong was signed. The check was presented to the Third National bank, Greensburg.

Mrs. Arabella Dill, of Crawfordsville, brought suit against Alfred Pearce to recover $1,607, which her husband drew from bank and spent in "bucketshop" deals, and Judge Harney has ruled in her favor. The Central Grain and Stock exchange, of Chicago, was co-defendant.

Daring burglars have been operating at Noblesville for several nights, and the other night Sheriff Thacker's residence was plundered. The sheriff thereupon called the night policemen to task, and blows were exchanged between this official and Patrolman Rhoades during an angry discussion.

In its issue of last evening the Columbia City Post has the following: "Hon. James M. Robinson, the talented attorney who assisted in the defense of Cunningham in the murder trial, made a splendid impression upon the people of Whitley county. His plea in behalf of the defendant, covering a period of three and a quarter hours, is regarded as one of the ablest efforts ever heard in our new temple of justice. Mr. Robinson possesses remarkable oratorical ability and in the trial of a cause of such consequence proved himself a keen and far seeing lawyer. He is not too officious, protects his client's interests and fights for his rights when they are being trampled upon. Socially he is genial and kind to all, regardless of the positions they occupy in the walks of life, and this in a measure accounts for his popularity."

In speaking of Hon. H. G. Thayer, who is to lecture at the Y. M. C. A. hall next Monday evening, the Rochester Republican of Monday evening says: "The announcement that Hon. H. G. Thayer would deliver a lecture at the Baptist church, in this city last evening, brought fourth an immense audience and long before the exercises began standing room was at a premium and many were compelled to return to their homes unable to gain admission. The subject of the lecture was 'St. Paul's Journey to, and His Imprisonment in Rome, and His Execution Without the Gates.' Mr. Thayer is a finest, self-possessed and entertaining speaker, and the lecture was an intellectual and literary treat to all who heard it. From the fact that the lecturer had made a visit to the old Roman capital in 1891, he was enabled to give many incidents and matters of personal observation connected with his sojourn, which were of intense interest."

Rev. C. C. Cissell, the pastor of the Berry street M. E. church, has returned from Kokomo, where he preached Sunday. Rev. Cissell succeeded in freeing the church from the $1,000 debt which hung over it, having raised by subscription $600 more than they needed for that purpose.

Lots of Life in Them Yet.

People whose forty-fifth birthday is behind them fancy that their power to resist disease is lessened because a cough sticks to them a few days. They change their idea when they have tried The Pineola Balsam, for it goes right to the spot and makes the irritated throat well. There is no more fitting design for the Christmas time than the star—"The Guiding Star of the East"—with its outreaching rays, which The Companion has adopted for its Christmas cover. The contents of this Holiday Number are a treasure house of the best and brightest of story, history, anecdotes, humor, etc. Fifty-two Companions cost only $1.75.

Several days ago Fred N. Miller, a conductor on the Main street line, was seized with an attack of hiccoughs. The affliction grew in severity until Mr. Miller's life was despaired of. Dr. Kanter finally stopped the hiccoughs after about twenty-four hours' hard work, and Mr. Miller is again able to be at work. It was a very peculiar case.

One of the most striking of the series of pictures which F. de Myrtach is drawing for The Century's "Life of Napoleon" will appear in the January number. It represents the Prussian Noble Guard sharpening their swords on the steps of the French Embassy in Berlin, an historic event carefully reproduced, but reminding one of a scene from opera.

The city council special committee, consisting of Messrs. Tigar, Wattenmaker, Griebel, Wolf and Hild, which was appointed at the last meeting to redistrict the city into wards, met last night and entered upon the work. It will be a big job and it must be completed by February 1 in order that the people of the lately annexed territory may gain the privileges of the next city election.

In speaking of congressional candidates the Monroeville Breeze says: "It is hinted that the Hon. James M. Robinson, of Fort Wayne, will again enter the field, seeking the seat to be filled from this, the twelfth Indiana district. Attorney Robinson is too well known in Allen and the counties which compose this district for us to attempt to introduce him. He is certainly capable of filling the position, and we doubt if the democratic party could hew out any timber that will equal him. In his former race for the nomination he gave his opponents the hottest neck to neck race that has ever been witnessed in any convention."

PRETTY

AND ATTRACTIVE WOMEN.

Their Good Looks Not a Secret.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

No matter to what country she belongs, or whether she be black or white, as a woman she desires to look well.

Women know the influence of beauty on man; men rarely admire a beautiful invalid, but they do admire a woman in whose cheeks blended good features and perfect health.

There is no secret about a woman's beauty; it all lies in the care she devotes to herself, in removing from her system all poisonous impurities, and keeping at bay those fearful female diseases.

The flashing eye, elastic step, and brilliant complexion are mere comparisons of a womb trouble; only the distressed expression and aches, pains, blues, faintness, dizziness, bearing-down feeling, etc., keep it company.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removes female troubles promptly, and cleanses, invigorates, and consequently beautifies the face of women. Women, the world over, pay homage to it, and praise its discoverer. Your druggist sells more of it than all other female medicines.

Love Lightens Labor so does SANTA CLAUS SOAP.

This great cleanser comes to woman's aid on wash-day and every day. Makes her work a matter of love instead of drudgery. Try it. Sold everywhere.

A VETERAN GONE.

Thomas Sheppard Dies at a Ripe Old Age.

Worked for the Pennsylvania Company for Forty Years—Affairs of the Rail and Shop.

Thomas Sheppard died at his home, 789 Montgomery street, at 11 o'clock this morning, aged eighty-two years, ten months and nine days. The deceased leaves only an aged wife to mourn his demise. Thomas Sheppard worked for the Pennsylvania company for over forty years, commencing as a boilermaker in the shops in Pennsylvania before the road was completed to Fort Wayne. When shops were established here he came and worked continuously in the boiler department until six years ago, when he was taken ill and was never again able to work. The old man was a favorite with his comrades and the news of his death will be a severe shock to them, some of whom worked with him forty years ago. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, at 1:30, from the house and a half hour latter from the Berry street M. E. church.

SECOMAN MARRIED.

Last evening, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Devlin, on South Wayne avenue, occurred the marriage of Charles Miller to Miss Georgie Devlin. Rev. Rice, of the Christian church, officiating. There were a great many guests at the wedding and the presents were numerous, varied and some of them quite valuable. Mr. Miller is a stationary engineer, employed at the Wabash shops, and resumed work this morning as if nothing out of the ordinary line had occurred. He had a liquor for each friend who dropped into the engine room today to congratulate him.

TOMORROW MAYBE MISSED.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 16.—President Mayer, of the Baltimore and Ohio, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted, but he will retain the office until his successor shall be elected.

BRIEF MENTION.

Tomorrow is pay day at the Wabash shops and offices.

Charles Brooking, of the electric works, is sick and off duty.

Nickel Plate Fireman Charles Jerome is off duty on account of sickness.

The Harry Russell theatrical troupe went to Huntington this morning.

Lawrence Hathaner left over the Wabash last evening for Hearne, Texas.

Herman Holtanbeck has taken a position in the meter department of the electric works.

Engineer Tim Short and Fireman C. Allen, of the Nickel Plate, are enjoying a few days' rest.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana company has just completed a new passenger station at Winchester, Ind.,

Frank Hobbs, of the Wabash shops, has gone to the country to see his father-in-law, who is lying very ill.

Brakeman J. H. Kepler, of Conductor C. Kaylor's local freight crew, on the Nickel Plate, is sick and off duty.

Fireman T. J. Lynch has been assigned to engine 93, on the Nickel Plate, with Engineer George Dunann.

Harry Cowden, wire chief of the Pittsburg, and his wife went to Chicago this morning to spend a few days.

Louis Fryer, foreman of the winding room at the electric works, will move into his new house on Breckenridge street tomorrow.

George McCormick, the Nickel Plate conductor who sprained his back severely a week ago, was able to resume train duties again yesterday.

Private affairs are absorbing the attention of Nickel Plate Conductor Chris Siemen at present and he has been off duty for several days.

George Wood came home from Syracuse, N. Y., last evening and this morning left for Nashville, Tenn., on business for the Electric corporation.

Joseph Haley, the well known Nickel Plate passenger engineer, has recovered from his recent illness, and has resumed his position at the throttle.

John Weber, John Rohn and Geo. Harris, Pittsburg round house employes, have resumed work after being absent several days on account of sickness.

H. P. Adams, J. M. Reed and Fred H. Wells left on the Wabash train this morning for Denver, Col. George L. Clayton took the same train for Decatur, Ill.

William S. Bittler, foreman of the water department of the Pittsburg, has returned from Valparaiso, where he has a gang at work in changing the water pipes to conform with the new order of things, occasioned by a new double track.

Pittsburg coach No. 47 went into the shops for repairs this morning

Otto Stoll, of the Bass blacksmith shop, is sick and unable to work.

The Bass works shipped a boiler and a set load of steam fixtures to Henderson, Ky., yesterday.

Peter Conroy and Frank X. Miller, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, are on the sick list today.

J. G. Peeples, of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a visit with his parents in Decatur, Ind.

John Fraine has recovered his health and this morning resumed work in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop.

Machinist W. H. Noble, of the Pittsburg shops, was called to Maysville this morning on important business.

Philip S. Hess and A. E. Richards, machinists in the Pittsburg shops, are off duty on account of sickness.

Jos Ramser, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, has gone to Elwood, Ind., to remain until after the holidays.

John Ryan has returned from Warsaw and resumed his duties in the Pittsburg shops. He is a coppersmith.

Engine tank No. 6 was turned out of the Pittsburg shops this morning and sent to Toledo, where its engine is stationed.

B. Reese, of the air brake department of the Pittsburg shops, will spend the holidays with his mother at Bellefountain, Pa.

C. Kronemiller has been transferred from the Pittsburg planing mills to the east car shop offices to do clerical work for a few days.

Ed Kelly, a former Fort Wayne man, now clerk in the supervisor's office at Warsaw, was here yesterday circulating among old friends.

Herbert Stonecifer, a son of Conductor Ben Stonecifer, of the Muncie, is now a member of Mr. Graham's clerical force, in the east car shops.

Samuel Murphy, foreman of painters at the east car shops, is slowly recovering from a severe illness, though still barely able to walk about his room.

Louis Bibler, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is still confined to his bed with lung fever, though he is improving and hopes to be out in a few days.

Frank Parain, Nickel Plate baggagemaster, is off duty on account of the death of his wife's father and the night baggagemaster, Ed Pfeiffer, is doing double duty.

Eastbound shipments from Chicago last week amounted to 83,996 tons, against 72,632 for the preceding week and 40,486 for the corresponding week of last year.

John Hickman, a machinist who had been employed in the Pittsburg round house for some time, resigned yesterday and will return to his old home, Jackson, Mich.

The Fort Wayne shops are doing considerable work for other roads in the Pennsylvania system at present. Today engine 119, which belongs to the Toledo branch, was turned out after thorough repair and No. 906, from the same road, was taken in for repairs.

W. H. Hayes, Pittsburg switchman, will leave tonight for Fullston, Pa., to attend the funeral of his grandmother. He was apprised of her death this morning by a telegram.

W. A. Murray, of the Chicago and Alton, and A. S. Cronemwett, of the Rock Island, traveling passenger agents, were circulating among the local agents yesterday.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, left on the Pennsylvania limited this morning for Chicago, on business for the works. He will return tomorrow.

Ernest Tegtmeyer has returned to the erecting department of the Pittsburg shops, after running an axle lathe in Capt. R. H. Harrison's department a couple of days.

William Hamilton, of the Bass blacksmith shop, and a young lady named Miss Kaylor, will be married tomorrow. Mr. Hamilton is off duty today preparing for the wedding.

Harry Regel, Jacob Luley, jr., and Clem Reed, who were suspended from the Bass shops two weeks ago on account of temporary lull in work, were reinstated this morning.

P. S. Huntington left this morning for Bloomington, Ill., where he is superintending the erection of an immense lighting plant in the place of one which was destroyed some time ago.

With Mr. Hays taking charge as general manager of the Grand Trunk it is believed that much closer traffic relations will be established between the Wabash and the Grand Trunk.

Thomas C. Stansbrook, the painter, and his family, will leave next Friday for Kansas City to visit Mrs. Stonebrook's parents. Tommy will return home in a week, but Mrs. Stonebrook and children will remain a month.

The Illinois State Grange association desires a straight 2 cent per-mile railroad fare. The Chicago & Alton is about the only line in Illinois that is willing and can stand a 2 cent-a-mile passenger rate.

Henry Woenker has been promoted from a roundhouse helper to a machinist and placed in the Pittsburg air brake department. Mr. Woenker is a very worthy young man and deserved the promotion.

It is believed that W. G. Brown, general manager of the Missouri lines of the Burlington system, will succeed W. F. Morrill, general manager of the entire Burlington route, when the latter retires January 1.

La Grippe has made its appearance again among the shopmen, and among those who are afflicted with the disease is Nick Madden, of the Pittsburg, who has been unable to work for several days. He is improving, however.

Engine 218, which since the world's fair has hauled the Pennsylvania pay train over the western lines of the system, is in the shop to receive new tires on her driver wheels. This is a Baldwin engine, built in 1873.

Frank Gephard, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, has returned from Huntington, where he visited a few days. Yesterday afternoon he was down town and dropped a $5 bill from his vest pocket on Calhoun street, near Wayne, which is still missing.

Mrs. William J. Swartzel, of No. 109 John street, received this morning a draft for $2,000 in payment of the policy her husband held in the Ancient Order of United Workmen. Mr. Swartzel was a moulder at the Bass works and died about two months ago. He was a member of Summit City lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W.

The Nickel Plate is again short of water in western Ohio and a train has been engaged in hauling water for several days. The rain of yesterday and last night will probably fill up the wells in the drought-stricken districts and render water hauling unnecessary in the future.

William Burhut, who has been firing a Nickel Plate switch engine for a couple of weeks, will return to the through freight service, having been assigned to engine 16, with Engineer Staver. Thomas Albright will take the position on the yard engine, with Engineer J. Quinn.

Louis J. Cordaway, a brother to Fireman Cordaway, of the Nickel Plate, arrived in the city a few days ago and will make Fort Wayne his future home. For the past three years Mr. Cordaway has been in California, working upon a fruit farm. He will probably return to firing on some railroad.

Eugene V. Debs severed his membership with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen yesterday. He belonged to the Terre Haute lodge and in his letter of withdrawal he says he does it because he believes his course lies in a different direction from that pursued by the brotherhood. There was a time when he believed in the brotherhood, but that time has passed.

Election Notice.

There will be an election of officers of Summit Encampment, No. 16, I. O. O. F., December 20, 1895, for the ensuing term; also to elect three trustees to serve one year. All members are requested to be present.

Come Early--Come Often--And Save Money.

FRIEND'S ENTERPRISE,

Corner Calhoun and Berry Streets.

Open Evenings Until Christmas.

There is evidently at hand the biggest Christmas trade Fort Wayne has ever enjoyed.

We have already a very large number of articles selected and laid by for delivery at Christmas time.

Our store crowded with beautiful things.

No such display ever made at Holiday time before.

Useful presents are always the most acceptable.

Trade in the forenoon when you can conveniently, and thus avoid the crowd of the afternoon.

Watch our Court and Clinton street windows for Bargains and for Holiday novelties.
